DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claim 1 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Page 32 and 33 teach the needed amount as critical for the titanium 0.01-2% and having the amount of polyester resin in an amount of 3% by weight or more.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 5, 9 & 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hilbert et al "571" in view of Ohmatsuzawa et al. Hilbert teaches the use of a titanium-based catalyst for the production of a polyethylene resin useful as a toner Note Col. 5 lines 25 – 35. Hilbert fails to teach various polyester resins with polar groups.

Ohmatsuzawa et al teaches the polyester with polar groups as the product of a polyester production with a titanium catalyst. It would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of applicants' invention with a reasonable expectation of success to use the polyester resins as the resins with the titanium catalyst in the toner resin of Hilbert et al to control the physical properties of the resin such as viscosity.

5. Claims 2-4 & 6-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
